ALL PROJECTS

bigneem.com

- It is an e-commerce website where customers can customize their furniture and can place order, we created this website by using Angular 12, flask server with mongodb database.

Crazyera.com

- This is my personal portfolio webpage which is fully responsible built by using HTML, CSS, JAVASCRIPT

More website in my local domain

- Angular websites = V-Games (with backend), Vision-store (fetching all data by server) , Todos list, etc
- React websites = Food ordering app (complex code with backend), Crazyera (sellerhub), Sales-work (dynamic UI), login-logout page(authentication), etc

ACHIEVEMENTS

crazyera.com , thesaleswork.com and some react and angular websites in my local browsers

crazyera.com - Specification

A fully responsible webpage with a highlight of darkmode , component breaking codes , simple and dynamic design , some logics of javascript and can change it's color by changing a single css code .

thesaleswork.com - Specification

A four pager responsible website which has a simple and beautiful frontend with a perfect color combination .
